Ram's Valley is a Hudson Valley start-up centered around our flagship line of 10 hot sauces. 10 years ago, Ram began his sauce and specialty foods business by becoming the proud owner of two huge truckloads of garlic. He began fermenting it and that fermented garlic became the base of his hot sauce recipes. Ram was born in Trinidad and Caribbean culinary traditions inform our hyper local product lines.

We manufacture our products in our factory located in Kingston, in the ARC Mid Hudson Building. We partner with local farms featuring local produce in all our sauces. We are also part of a program that brings disabled people into the workforce by offering employment in our factory.
